Other Information

The Original STP aimed to "reduce the congestion outside both entrances of the school through sustainable travel to and from school." The objectives were

- to encourage all children that live in Cheddington to walk to and from school
- to encourage children eligible to use the school transport to do so
- to introduce Go for Gold for all children
- to introduce the Golden Boot class award each term
- to approach Buckinghamshire Council for the provision of school transport from Ivinghoe and Pitstone
- to improve the safety of children journeying to and from school

Please see "Previous Plan" STP 2008 for full details, including introduction and reasons for developing travel plan
